LUIGI BONAFEDE & PIETRO TONOLO RELEASE PEACE.

“There is in Luigi Bonafede's playing and writing a strong pull toward the romantic impulse; his music is rich with passionate expression. Luigi and Pietro give us music at once expansive and focused, extroverted and introspective.” - Steve Swallow

Two key players from Italy's jazz scene, pianist Luigi Bonafede and saxophonist Pietro Tonolo play together for a unique session full of passion and surprise.

““This set of mostly duets is nothing short of resplendent, needing no qualification whatsoever. With Bonafede's thoughtful compositions, seemingly hand-crafted for Tonolo's oft-sprite and lyrical soprano saxophone, this set of nine dynamic chamber pieces has the feel and visual qualities of a jazz ballet.

- Jazziz, December 2007

“With marvelous musical economy, the Italian duo of saxophonist Pietro Tonolo and pianist Luigi Bonafede saturates the senses, conuring up personalized yet accessible vista....Its subtle interpolation of everything from folk to contemporary classical influences combines with the musicians' backgrounds to create an an appealing melodic Mediterranean impressionism.”
